

Nassau Country Club Dress Code

GOLF

The following articles of clothing are not appropriate attire for any of the golf facilities at Nassau, including the golf course, practice tee, putting green and practice area: Shirts without collars (men only); Fishnet or mesh shirts (anyone); Short shorts or tennis shorts (anyone); Bermuda shorts not to exceed 6" from center of kneecap to bottom of hem are permitted; Cut-offs (anyone); Jean-cut style pants, whether denim or other fabric (anyone); High-top sneakers (anyone); Attire generally suitable for beachwear, including bathing suits (anyone); Jogging attire (anyone); Tank tops and T-shirts (anyone); Any article of clothing with wording inappropriate to the atmosphere of the Club.

TENNIS & PLATFORM TENNIS

Gentlemen's attire must include proper tennis shorts and in combination may be 50% color. No T-shirts, cut-offs or jogging shorts permitted. Ladies top and skirt combinations may be 50% color. Dresses may be a solid pastel color with trim. Sneakers other than tennis flat-style are not permitted on tennis courts. Warm-up type suits are permitted when playing tennis, platform tennis, but are inappropriate for wear at other times and for other sports. Sweat suits and high-top sneakers are not permitted for platform tennis.

GROUNDS & POOL

Members and their children are not permitted to arrive at the Club in bathing suits. They must change into bathing attire at the Club. After changing to swimming suits, members must stay in the pool area. Bathing suits with or without cover-ups are not permitted on the Great Lawn or Clubhouse (other than locker rooms). Children in swim suits are not permitted to roam the porches, the Clubhouse, tennis courts or other areas. Attire not acceptable on the golf course or tennis courts is not permitted elsewhere on the grounds.

CLUBHOUSE

Jackets and ties are required for gentlemen in the upstairs and downstairs dining room for Saturday dinners, except for children under eight years old. Children under eight must be neatly attired. Friday night dinners, casual attire in keeping with the Country Club atmosphere is appropriate. Occasional exceptions for special events may be announced. Pub Nights, Wednesday evenings, and Casual Dining, Sunday evenings, jackets are optional, however, appropriate casual attire is required. Golf or Tennis shorts, or warm-up suits, are out of place in the Great Hall and all upstairs dining rooms unless posted as a casual dining night. Such attire is acceptable in the Grill Room, except when Candlelight Dinner is being served. Clothing not in keeping with the standards for golf or tennis are not appropriate in the Clubhouse or elsewhere on Club property. Bare feet are not acceptable anywhere outside the pool area or locker rooms.